

Coeliac disease diagnostics according to new ESPGHAN criteria (according to Husby et al., J Paediatr Gastroenterol Nutr 2011)

¹Or coeliac disease-specific IgG based tests, e.g. anti-DGP (IgG), anti-tTG (IgG) or EmA (IgG); ²Upper limit of normal; ³EMA or DQ2/DQ8; ⁴From second blood sample, as additional control; ⁵Ambiguous result, false-positive anti-tTG result?, false-negative HLA test?, biopsy should be considered; ⁶False-negative biopsy or false-positive serological result?; ⁷Gluten-free diet

¹Or coeliac disease-specific IgG based tests, e.g. anti-DGP (IgG), anti-tTG (IgG) or EmA (IgG); ²Upper limit of normal; ³From bulbus duodeni and 4x from pars descendens; ⁴Ambiguous result, false-negative biopsy or false-positive serological result?, silent/latent coeliac disease?, ⁵Gluten-free diet